COMPLIANCE SURVEY OF THE SUPPLY CHAIN INITIATIVE - 2016

Welcome to Dedicated's online survey website.

The web-based methodology guarantees the confidentiality of your company's answers. Only Dedicated, the research agency appointed to conduct this survey, has access to contributions from individual companies.

Data will be made anonymous and aggregated at European level. The findings will be included in the next Annual Report of the Supply Chain Initiative.

Completion of the survey is compulsory for all registered companies, except for micro and small enterprises which are only invited to take part. We kindly ask you to complete this questionnaire by 16 October 2016.

The phrase "The Principles of Good Practice" refers to The Principles of good practice in vertical relations in the food supply chain adopted on 29 November 2011.

5.d When lodging complaints since your registration, which among the following Principles of Good Practice have been allegedly breached? [Please tick boxes, several answers possible]

- CONSUMERS: Contracting parties should always take into account consumer interests and the overall sustainability of the supply chain in their B2B relations. Contracting parties should ensure maximum efficiency and optimisation of resources in the distribution of goods throughout the supply chain.
- FREEDOM OF CONTRACT: Contracting parties are independent economic entities, respecting each other's rights to set their own strategy and management policy, including the freedom to determine independently whether to engage or not in any agreement.
- FAIR DEALING: Contracting parties should deal with each other responsibly, in good faith and with professional diligence.
- WRITTEN AGREEMENTS: Agreements should be in writing, unless impracticable or where oral agreements are mutually acceptable and convenient. They should be clear and transparent, and cover as many relevant and foreseeable elements as possible, including rights and procedures of termination.
- PREDICTABILITY: Unilateral change to contract terms shall not take place unless this possibility and its circumstances and conditions have been agreed in advance. The agreements should outline the process for each party to discuss with the other any changes necessary for the implementation of the agreement or due to unforeseeable circumstances, as provided in the agreement.
- COMPLIANCE: Agreements must be complied with.
- INFORMATION: Where information is exchanged, this shall be done in strict compliance with competition and other applicable laws, and the parties should take reasonable care to ensure that the information supplied is correct and not misleading.
- CONFIDENTIALITY: Confidentiality of information must be respected unless the information is already public or has been independently obtained by the receiving party lawfully and in good faith. Confidential information shall be used by the recipient party only for the purpose for which it was communicated.
- RESPONSIBILITY FOR RISK: All contracting parties in the supply chain should bear their own appropriate entrepreneurial risks.
- JUSTIFIABLE REQUEST: A contracting party shall not apply threats in order to obtain an unjustified advantage or to transfer an unjustified cost.
